

PARENT CODE OF CONDUCT

The Wind River Skate Club is committed to ensuring that all skaters have the opportunity to participate in a safe and welcoming environment that is encouraging and promotes their overall development. Parents have an enormous influence on skaters' experiences in the sport. The quality of a skater's experience is determined by their relationships with parents and the manner in which parents conduct themselves in the Wind River Skate Club environment.

In this code "parents" shall refer to "parents and guardians". This code applies to all parents who are members of the Wind River Skate Club, or have children who are members of the Wind River Skate Club. Parents shall abide by this code at all times while participating in any Wind River Skate Club event, competition, or activity.

All parents are expected to conduct themselves in a responsible manner consistent with the values of fair play, integrity, open communication, and mutual respect.

Parents shall always model positive responsible behavior, and communicate with their child/children that they expect them to do the same. Parents will assume the major responsibility for their child/children's on ice conduct and attitude.

Parents shall at all times treat all individuals and property with dignity, courtesy and respect, including but not limited to skaters, coaches, officials, volunteers, other parents, and all other individuals that are part of the club, or employed at the Sublette County Ice Arena.

- Parents shall refrain from any behavior or comments which are profane, insulting, harassing, sexist, racist, abusive, disrespectful or otherwise offensive without hostility or violence.
- Parents shall emphasize the importance of values like sportsmanship, respect, cooperation, competition and teamwork to their child/children offering praise for competing fairly, participation and skill development.
- Parents shall model and encourage their child/children to maintain a healthy balance between skating and life (e.g., school, other activities, social life, etc.)
- Parents shall model and encourage balanced, healthy food choices and subscribing to an active and healthy lifestyle.
- Parents shall set high, but reasonable expectations for their child/children's participation in skating focusing on development and enjoyment for the child.
- Parents shall instill confidence in their child/children's ability and skill development, always avoiding comparisons with other skaters.
- Parents shall celebrate the acquisition of skills and goals achieved by their child/children.
- Parents, along with the professional coach and the athlete, shall be considered members of a team whose main concern is the child's overall progress and development. Parents shall respect that the professional coach is responsible and empowered for the on-ice and off-ice development of the athlete. A parent's role shall be to take a healthy interest in their child's progress and development, and be responsible for the child's nutrition, rest, adherence to off-ice training regimen set by the coach or other fitness professional, overall health, life-balance, and moral and emotional support.

- Parents shall ensure their child/children wears proper skating clothing and equipment.
- Parents shall never provide alcohol or drugs to minors in a Wind River Skate Club environment.
- Parents shall never provide or advocate the use of performance enhancing drugs or substances.
- Parents shall avoid any conduct, which brings themselves or the Wind River Skate Club into disrepute, including but not limited to abusive use of alcohol and/or non-medical use of drugs.
- Parents shall openly support and uphold this code of conduct policy and take action and steps to ensure other parents follow and uphold this code of conduct policy.
- Parents shall adhere to the policies, procedures, rules, standards, and ethics of the Wind River Skate Club and USFSA at all times.
